DEDICATION

Through the four years of discouragements, defeats, and difficulties our class has suffered, there were always present our class advisors, who were able to overshadow our discouragements with words of hope and moments of success and of happiness. We shall never be able to show our full appreciation for their help in so many ways, but we do make a small beginning by dedicating this yearbook, The 1965 Keyhole, to our faithful advisors, Mrs. Gladys Farwell and Mr. Frank Annaldo.

A.F.S. STUDENT

Ana Sonia Elizabeth Cóbar-Gudiel

This year Littleton High School has been privileged to have Sonia Cobar, from Guatemala, with us. Sonia is a charming, fun-loving, adventurous girl. She anticipates all new experiences enthusiastically. Sonia shows her fine sense of humor in her own little jokes. When June comes around and we have to bid farewell to Sonia, our hearts will be sad. We shall all feel, however, that knowing Sonia has been one of the most rewarding experiences of our high school years, and for some, it may be the most rewarding experience of our life.
